

The Decatur Review in Decatur, IL
Wednesday Evening, November 26, 1902
Jennie Hughes School Thanksgiving Program
(Performed Recitation)

IN THE SCHOOLS

In the schools the teachers of the different rooms called attention to the day and outlined its history and meaning. In many of the rooms impromptu programs were given while in others programs had been carefully prepared.

School will close for two days, Thanksgiving day and the next day. This will give the pupils Thursday, Friday, Saturday Sunday, four days in succession, with no school.

AT DUFFEE SCHOOL.

THIRD AND FOURTH GRADES.

Song—"Harvest Song," third and fourth grade.

"Nov."—Glen Crow.

Jack Frost—Eddie James.

"November"—Lawrence Smith.

"The Squirrel"—Cleveland Dicken.

Song—"Old Winter," fourth grade.

"Song of the Wind"—George Shulke.

"Corn"—Lucille Richter.

"We Thank Thee"—May Shless.

"To Make a Year"—Stella Turner.

"November"—Herbert Shockey.

Song—"Drop, Drop, the Nuts Are Falling," third grade.

"November"—Hazel Grinstead.

"The Magic Vine"—Lynn Shockey.

"Give Thanks"—Tom Wilkinson.

"The Mouse's Thanksgiving"—David Gray.

Song—"A Song of Thanksgiving," third and fourth grades.

"Popping Corn"—Charles Seankon.

Recitation—Jennie Hughes.

"Thanksgiving Story"—Cleo Huffman.

"Better than Going to Grandpa's"—Carrie Funk.

"Jack Frost"—John Hughes.

"Little Miss Apple"—Edith Higar.

Song—"Thanksgiving is Coming," fourth grade.

Fruit Party—Ruth DeGroat, Lydia Kusch, Deloras Forbes, Mary Ryan.

"Thanksgiving Joys"—Gladys Rice.

"The Squirrel's Arithmetic"—Jacob Slider.

"Thanksgiving Day"—Lillie Hinton.

Song—"Thanksgiving," third grade.

"Teddy's Thanksgiving"—Anna Cullen.

"Thanksgiving Dinner"—Emmet Powers.

"The Little Pilgrim Maid"—Ruth Knowlton.

"Pumpkin Pie"—Inez Moomey.

Song—"Dance of the Leaves," fourth grade.

"Thanksgiving Day"—Maggie Parrish.

"The Turkey's Wishbone"—Naomi Thornbury.

"Today and Long Ago"—Marguerite Zimmerman.

"Thanksgiving"—David Gray.

Song—"Autumn Breezes," third and fourth grades.

FIRST AND SECOND GRADES.

Thanksgiving story.

"The Puritan Maid"—Elmer McCleary.

Song—First grade.

"Story of the Pumpkin"—Alice Shultz.

Lucille Dempsey, Florence Kepler, Celia Smith, Joe Dicken.

Song—Second grade.

"A Recipe"—Ada Shingshang.

Song—First grade.

OTHER GRADES.

The fifth, sixth and seventh grades united and sang Thanksgiving day songs.

The pupils of all the rooms remembered the poor by bringing very liberal contributions. Several families were remembered, receiving large basketfuls.