

Robert Lee Rhodes passes Boy Scout Exams

47 Boy Scouts Pass Examination

Fulfill Requirements of Red Cross Tests.

More than two thirds of attending scouts at Camp Robert Faries successfully fulfilled the requirements of the Red Cross beginners life saving examinations administered to assure efficiency in swimming tests.

The routine of the examination is one of the most severe tests in water activities. There was a total of forty-seven scouts who passed.

They were:

John Morrison	Robert Rhodes
Daniel Bost	Horace Pette
Virgil Anderson	William Dolan
Otto Keil	Bryant Walworth
Hael Haggerty	Darwin Kitch
Norman Johnson	Donald Smythe
Jack Dalton	Eugene Morris
Edwin Keil	Dale Wilkins
John Hopkins	Lawrence Roe
William Parsons	Harold Roby
Miles Hubbard	Truman Reynolds
William Hammer	Edmund Keilman
Klass Mulder	Cecil Gollingshead
Donald Collins	Howard Reynolds
John Robinson	Louis Ross
Gilman Smythe	Junior Parsons
Frank Huntley	Robert Taylor
Mervin Johnson	Frank Kettlecamp
James Hudson	Clarence Grubbs
Herman Brown	Jack Scharnberg
Everett Kerman	Harold Taylor
Allen Julian	Harry Leave
Herman Roe	Verne Vandervort.
Alex Van Praag III

JUNIOR CLASS.

Those who passed the Junior classifications of the same set of tests were:

Fred Panwitt	Harold Vale
Klas Mulder	Ray Hoover
Miles Hubbard	Harold Taylor
Chase Coffey	William Parsons.

Two scouts succeeded in passing the senior Red Cross examination. They were Lloyd Hubbard and Malcolm Waring, assistant camp director.